

Pappas Telecasting Companies' 'donation' of airtime to Republican candidates is legally questionable and seems to me to be an abuse of their privileged access to the public airwaves.

The public interest is not served when a corporate headquarters decides to provide one side in local elections a louder voice than others. Please take immediate and effective action to end such abuses. Thank you.